26th. We have news from London up to the $2d, showing that Mass6na still occupied Santarem; there had been a few skirmishes in which the English had been repulsed, and Lord Wellington had fallen back on his positions at Lisbon.